Investment Objectives

The objective of the Brock Personal Pension Plan is to accumulate a trust fund from which to provide benefits in retirement.

Please tick the relevant box:

- I am very uncomfortable with any risk and accept that my capital may be eroded by inflation.
- I am prepared to take a small amount of risk to provide for the potential for growth over the medium to longer term.
- I am comfortable with risk and prepared to take a longer term view. This may mean the overall portfolio value fluctuates over the medium term however it provides for the potential for growth over the portfolio over the long term.
- I am very comfortable with risk and willing to accept volatility in the portfolio value in order to provide for the potential for higher returns over the long term.

Risk Profile

Please tick the box that applies to you:

- Lower Risk
People in this category are conservative with their investments. They prefer taking a small amount of risk to achieve modest or relatively stable returns. They accept that there may be some short term periods of fluctuation in value.
- Lower to Medium Risk
People in this category are relatively cautious with their investments. They want to try to achieve a reasonable return, and are prepared to accept some risk in doing so. Typically these portfolios will exhibit relatively modest yet frequent fluctuations in value.
- Medium Risk
People in this category are balanced in their attitude towards risk. They do not seek risky investments but do not avoid them either. They are prepared to accept fluctuations in the value of their investment to try and achieve better long term returns. These portfolios will be subject to frequent and at times significant fluctuations in value.
- Medium to High Risk
People in this category are relatively comfortable with investment risk. They aim for higher long term returns and understand that this can also mean some sustained periods of poorer performance. They are prepared to accept significant fluctuation in value to try and achieve better long term returns.
- High Risk
People in this category are very comfortable with investment risk. They aim for high long term investment returns and do not overly worry about periods of poorer performance in the short to medium term. Ordinarily these portfolios can be subject to the full extent and frequency of stock market fluctuations.

For further advice on risk profiling please consult your financial adviser.

Investment Direction

Brock gives you, as a member of the retirement plan, the power to provide investment directions to the trustee on how your member's account should be invested.

This means it is classed as allowing "member-direction" as defined in the Guernsey Financial Services Commission (GFSC) .The Pension Scheme and Gratuity Scheme Rules and Guidance, 2021 (the Rules) (as amended, varied or altered from time to time or as may be superseded by any relevant regulation or legislation), and clause 4A and Schedule 2 of the Trust Deed which governs Brock.

You, the member, are responsible for making, selecting, directing and reviewing investment decisions.

In order for the trustee to administer and process your investment instructions, you have the choice of three options, from which you must choose one, as to how you wish to operate your member-directed investment powers; please confirm your choice below.

Whichever option you choose, you must exercise your powers in line with the Statement of Investment Principles that attach to Brock.

1. I will contact the trustee directly with my investment instructions. (This means that you must sign all investment dealing instructions that are submitted to the trustee).

You may submit your signed investment instructions via your appointed financial adviser.

OR

2. I will appoint my financial adviser (detailed on page five) to provide investment instructions to the trustee on my behalf. I confirm that the trustee can accept investment instructions from my appointed financial adviser until such time as I notify the trustee otherwise in writing. I understand that my appointed financial adviser will be entitled to provide investment instructions without prior reference to me. I agree that the trustee will have no liability for any losses arising from any such investment instructions provided by my appointed financial adviser. I will indemnify the trustee to the fullest extent permitted by law against all actions, claims, losses, costs, penalties or liabilities arising out of such appointment and investment instructions.

(Your appointed financial adviser must sign all investment dealing instructions that are submitted to the trustee. The trustee will accept investment dealing instructions signed SOLELY by your appointed financial adviser).

OR

3. I will nominate an investment manager to manage the investments on a discretionary basis within my retirement plan and hereby instruct the trustee to appoint my nominated investment manager to act in this capacity. I understand and acknowledge that the contractual relationship will be between the trustee and my appointed investment manager and my appointed investment manager will manage the investment of my Brock.

Investment Certificate

INVESTMENT DIRECTION CERTIFICATE INCLUDING CONFIRMATION AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT THAT THE MEMBER DIRECTED INVESTMENT APPROACH WILL APPLY

You have applied to be a member of the Brock Personal Pension Plan (the “Scheme”). You have separately been provided with a summary of the Key Features of the Scheme, your rights to benefits from the Scheme together with those of anyone who might benefit following your death and the key responsibilities of those who operate the Scheme (the “Key Features”).

This certificate sets out certain information regarding the Scheme and your benefits as a member under the Scheme. You are asked to sign at the end of this certificate to acknowledge that you have read and fully understand and agree to its contents.

MEMBER DIRECTED INVESTMENT APPROACH

What do we mean by ‘investment approach’?

The trustee will receive any contributions and transfer payments made which relate to you. These are invested and form the basis of any benefits payable to you in accordance with the provisions governing the Scheme as summarised in the Key Features. The value of these at any time, taking into account investment return and loss and any deductions (for example, for fees), is referred to as the value of your member’s account.

In accordance with the regulatory requirements applicable to the Scheme, it is important that you understand clearly who is responsible for making, selecting, reviewing and changing the investments that relate to your member’s account. This is the ‘investment approach’.

What investment approach applies?

This certificate confirms that the ‘member directed’ investment approach applies to investment assets referable to your member’s account.

What is the member directed investment approach?

The member-directed investment approach means that assets held in the Scheme which are referable to your member’s account will (except in exceptional circumstances – see below) be invested in accordance with your directions, or the directions of any person whom you have appointed, authorised and confirmed to the trustee in writing (in such form as the trustee may require) as being authorised to give instructions on your behalf (your “duly authorised representative”).

What are the exceptional circumstances where the member directed investment approach does not apply?

The trustee may only intervene in making, selecting or changing investments if they are or might be or become unlawful or might prejudice the tax relieved status of the Scheme.

Otherwise, the trustee will have no role in making, selecting, maintaining, reviewing or changing these investments or assessing the suitability of them or the investment strategy adopted for you. Other than making or changing investments at your instruction (or those of your duly authorised representative), the trustee will not otherwise take any steps in relation to the investments held.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON THE MEMBER DIRECTED INVESTMENT APPROACH

The trustee has no responsibility in relation to the making, changing, reviewing and monitoring of investments

The member-directed approach means that the making, changing or reviewing of any of the investments referable to your member’s account is not the responsibility of the trustee and it will not be obliged to take any steps to monitor investments on behalf of you or any other person who may be entitled to benefits from the Scheme following your death. Except in the exceptional circumstances noted above, the trustee will simply be responsible for complying with your investment instructions.

The making, changing or reviewing of any investment on the basis of your instructions (or those of your duly authorised representative) does not mean that the trustee in any way endorses the investment or its suitability to meet your own financial objectives or investment risk profile.

Your responsibility to confirm the suitability of investments

You are responsible for decisions as to the making, changing or reviewing of any investments. You (or your duly authorised representative) should inform the trustee of what investment decisions you wish it to implement.

It is also your responsibility to confirm that the investments made which are referable to your member's account are appropriate in your circumstances and the circumstances of any person who may be entitled to benefits from the Scheme following your death.

You are recommended to seek advice from a suitably authorised and qualified adviser. The trustee and its affiliates are not able to provide you with any financial, tax or legal advice.

What liability does the trustee have if the investments fall or are inappropriate?

The trustee will have no liability to you or any person who may be entitled to benefits from the Scheme following your death if the value of the investments fall or are considered inappropriate in the circumstances.

Are there any circumstances in which the trustee will not implement your investment directions?

The trustee may only intervene making, selecting or changing investments if they are or might be or become unlawful or might prejudice the tax relieved status of the Scheme. This is explained further above.

Can the investment approach be changed so that you are no longer responsible for the investments?a. Your option to change the approach

If for any reason you no longer wish to retain responsibility for the investments, you may, with the agreement of the trustee (including any agreement regarding fees), change the basis on which investments are made by completing and submitting an application form to the trustee which will be provided to you for these purposes.

b. Where the investment approach will change

On your death, unless you tell us otherwise, if and to the extent that a pension or annuity is payable from the Scheme in favour of one or more of your dependants, the member-directed investment approach will apply so that the funds held in respect of such dependant will continue to be invested in accordance with your instructions. The dependant will be responsible for making, changing, reviewing and monitoring the investments and will have the power to direct the trustee (except in exceptional circumstances) as to investments. However, before the trustee processes any investment directions from the dependant, it will be entitled to ask the dependant to sign a form similar to this to confirm that the dependant understands their responsibilities in relation to investments and indemnifies the trustee in the same way as set out below. The trustee has no responsibility for the instructions of your dependant.

If you do not wish this approach to apply following your death, you should discuss this with the trustee and agree an alternative approach (including any fees that may be payable).

OTHER INFORMATION ON INVESTMENT APPROACH

This is not a scheme where the trustee will select investment options from which you can choose the investments to apply. Accordingly, except in the circumstances outlined above, the trustee has no responsibility for the professional conduct of the investment management activity so far as relates to assets referable to your member's account. Further, the Scheme documentation does not restrict how the assets referable to your member's account may be invested by reference to those listed in The Pension Scheme and Gratuity Scheme Rules and Guidance, 2021 (the Rules) (as amended, varied or altered from time to time or as may be superseded by any relevant regulation or legislation) or that they are made only with the advice of an 'Appropriate Financial Adviser' as defined in those Rules.

Your certification

If you wish to join the Scheme you must sign this certificate. This certificate also confirms that you wish the member directed investment approach to apply.

GENERAL CONFIRMATIONS

By signing this form you confirm that:

- I have received this certificate from the trustee
- I have received the Key Features from the trustee
- Unless the trustee has received from me information of any employer or other third party who will pay contributions to the Scheme on my behalf (including details of amounts and timings), it will operate on the basis that no such third party will pay contributions to the Scheme on my behalf.
- I have received a statement of anticipated charges and commission from the trustee. Such charges may be deducted from my member's account except in relation to charges relating to investments I select as the trustee does not yet have knowledge of these.
- I have received a copy of the trustee's complaints procedure which I may invoke if for any reason I am dissatisfied with any matter relating to its trusteeship of the Scheme. If it is not possible to resolve the matter through the complaints procedure, the Channel Islands Financial Ombudsman may be available to consider the complaint. Certification relating to the member directed investment approach

By signing this certificate I confirm that in consideration of the trustee admitting me as a member of the Scheme and all other consideration:

- I understand and acknowledge that I have selected the member-directed investment approach which means that until I elect for a different investment approach to apply (with the agreement of the trustee), the member-directed investment approach, as explained in this certificate, will apply to the Scheme assets that are referable to my member's account.
- I have received, read and understood the information contained in this certificate; I have, to the extent I consider necessary taken advice on the implications of the member-directed investment approach and am satisfied that I understand the information provided above.
- I agree that the status of the Scheme, so far as it relates to the investment of assets referable to my member's account is that the 'member-directed' investment approach is to apply and disclaim the trustee and its advisers from any responsibility for the suitability of the investments of assets held in relation to me that are referable to my member's account.
- I have noted the fees applicable, in particular those chargeable by the trustee, in relation to operating the Scheme so far as relates to my member's account.
- I note that the trustee may not carry out my investment instruction where the instruction would cause it to act unlawfully or would potentially prejudice the Scheme's tax relieved status.

In consideration of the trustee operating the Scheme, so far as it relates to me, in accordance with the member-directed investment approach, I hereby agree to:

- a) relieve the trustee, its successors and their respective past, present and future directors, officers or employees and any of them from the consequences of any breach of trust caused directly or indirectly as a result of the trustee complying with any directions from you as to the investment of the Scheme assets as they relate to me and are held in my member's account within the Scheme; and
- b) indemnify the trustee for all liabilities, actions, proceedings, claims, demands, taxes, duties and all associated costs and penalties that the trustee, its successors and their respective past, present and future directors, officers or employees or any of them may at any time become liable for by virtue of complying with any direction from me as to the investment of the Scheme assets as they relate to me and are held in my member's account within the Scheme; and
- c) indemnify the trustee, where I have authority to act as nominee or agent of the trustee in making any investments whether in the trustee's name or my own name, for all liabilities, actions, proceeds, claims, demands, taxes, duties and all associated costs and penalties that the trustee, its successors and their respective past, present and future directors, officers or employees or any of them may at any time become liable for as a consequence of any action or omission by me acting or purporting to act as the trustee's nominee or agent.

The relief given by this certificate is intended to come within Section 40 of the Trusts (Guernsey) Law, 2007. By signing this certificate, you also certify that:

- i) you are of full age and legal capacity;
- ii) you have not been improperly induced to enter into or give this certificate; and
- iii) you have either taken authoritative legal advice as to the effect and consequences of entering into or giving this certificate or have freely declined to do so.
